(v) Two (2) Tax Maps for all properties showing the property at “close up” and overview (showing larger area with cross streets) levels. (vi) When a Deactivated or Subdivided Parcel (Parent Parcel) is submitted for title search, the Child parcels will be identified and the Trustee Legal staff informed to determine whether to continue with an expanded title search for the Child parcels in question.
 - b. Provide copies of any and all appropriate instruments in connection with each property researched.
 - c. Complete and submit information for each property researched in a timely manner, in accordance with the following time frame:
 - (i) COUNTY will provide PROVIDER a group (“Group”) of not more than fifty (50) Summary Pages for individual tax sale parcels (a template of a Summary Page is attached hereto and incorporated herein as “Exhibit A”). Summary Pages will contain 1) the tax sale number; 2) the parcel number; 3) the Owner of record per the records of the office of the Shelby County Trustee; 4) the lot number per the records of the office of the Shelby County Trustee; 5) the property location per the records of the office of the Shelby County Trustee. The Summary Page will also contain blank lines in which the PROVIDER will fill in summary title information. COUNTY will provide no more than one Group per week.
 - (ii) PROVIDER will do a limited search on each Summary Page (or indicate that the parcel is un-searchable and why) within the Group and return all 50 searches along with the corresponding Summary Page with all blanks completed within five (5) business days of receipt of said Group by PROVIDER.

2. The COUNTY agrees to compensate PROVIDER for its services at the rate of $75.00 per title search, or $3,750.00 per complete 50 search Group.
